

THE BIG GREEN LUNCH

• Q U I Z •

Questions

1. Watercress is a member of which vegetable family?
2. How high is Mount Everest?
3. Girls Aloud's Cheryl Tweedy is married to which Premiership footballer and what team does he play for?
4. Where are the Taurus mountains found?
5. For which film did Tom Hanks win his first Academy Award (Oscar) and in which year?
6. On what TV programme does Lynn Faulds Wood currently regularly appear, sometimes with her husband?
7. What is the Gas Mark equivalent to 180C?
8. What was the first product to be advertised on TV?
9. Where would you find the Islets of Langerhans?
10. From which countries do the following cheeses traditionally originate:
 - Edam
 - Parmesan
 - Gruyere
 - Yarg
 - Camembert
11. Which band undertook The Bigger Bang tour in 2006?
12. Antony Worrall Thompson owns two public houses, The Lamb and The Greyhound, in which English town can they be found?
13. At which sporting venue would you find Melling Road?
14. Who wrote Pride & Prejudice?
15. In what city is the Uffizi Gallery?
16. What is measured in Scoville Units?
17. What is the chemical symbol for gold?
18. Which two countries contested the first ever international cricket match?
19. In what year was Charles I executed?
20. In Eastenders, The Queen Victoria is on the corner of Albert Square and which other road?

THE BIG GREEN LUNCH

• Q U I Z •

Questions and Answers

1. Watercress is a member of which vegetable family? Cruciferous
2. How high is Mount Everest? 29,002 feet (8,840 m)
3. Girls Aloud's Cheryl Tweedy is married to which Premiership footballer and what team does he play for?
Ashley Cole, Chelsea
4. Where are the Taurus mountains found? Turkey
5. For which film did Tom Hanks win his first Academy Award (Oscar) and in which year? Philadelphia, 1994
6. On what TV programme does Lynn Faulds Wood currently regularly appear, sometimes with her husband?
GMTV
7. What is the Gas Mark equivalent to 180C? 4
8. What was the first product to be advertised on TV? Toothpaste
9. Where would you find the Islets of Langerhans? The pancreas
10. From which countries do the following cheeses traditionally originate:
 - Edam The Netherlands
 - Parmesan Italy
 - Gruyere Switzerland
 - Yarg England
 - Camembert France
11. Which band undertook The Bigger Bang tour in 2006? Rolling Stones
12. Antony Worrall Thompson owns two public houses, The Lamb and The Greyhound, in which English town can they be found? Henley on Thames
13. At which sporting venue would you find Melling Road? Aintree
14. Who wrote Pride & Prejudice? Jane Austen
15. In what city is the Uffizi Gallery? Florence
16. What is measured in Scoville Units? The heat of chillies
17. What is the chemical symbol for gold? Au
18. Which two countries contested the first ever international cricket match? Canada and USA (in 1844)
19. In what year was Charles I executed? 1649
20. In Eastenders, The Queen Victoria is on the corner of Albert Square and which other road? Bridge Street

